

Ordinance No. 11.

(Continued from page 4.)

lane, alley or public grounds of the city, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Defacing Public Buildings.

Sec. 10. Any person who shall in this city, purposely deface or besmear any public or private building or out building belonging thereto, or any of the appurtenances thereof, or any fence, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Removing Planks, Etc., From Sidewalks.

Sec. 11. Any person who shall loosen or remove any plank, board, block, brick, stone, stringer or supporter from any sidewalk or crossing, or loosen or remove any plank, stringer or other support from any culvert or bridge shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Theft.

Sec. 12. Any person who shall steal, take and carry away or embezzle any money or personal property or effects of another under the value of twenty dollars, not being the subject of grand larceny by the laws of this territory, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the city jail not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Crowds.

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for three or more persons to sit or stand idly or congregate upon or obstruct any street or sidewalk, or in front of any store or place of business in this city, and any person or persons refusing or neglecting, upon request of the city marshal, or any police officer, or of the owner or occupant of such store or place of business to move and cease to obstruct street or sidewalk, or place of business, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Driving Over Horse, Etc.

Sec. 14. If any person shall ride or drive any animal, or drive any vehicle on or across any piece or section of hose laid down for use by any fire company, within the city limits, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined in any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Posting Bills, Etc.

Sec. 15. If any person shall stick, paste or post, write or print any bills or placards upon any public building or fence, sidewalk or other property, without the permission of the owner thereof, he shall, on conviction, be fined not less than one nor more than twenty-five dollars.

Horses or Cattle Grazing on Public Highways.

Sec. 16. Any person who shall turn out upon the streets and avenues and alleys of said city for the purpose of grazing along the same, any horse, cow, or cattle of any kind, or being the owner or keeper of any such horse, cow or cattle, shall permit the same to graze along the public streets, avenues or alleys shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five dollars.

ARTICLE IV.

Offenses Affecting the Administration of Justice.

Resisting Officers.

Section 1. Any person who shall knowingly and wilfully oppose or obstruct the marshal or any of his deputies, or any policeman of this city in the discharge of official duty or shall by threats or otherwise seek to intimidate any officer from the discharge of any official duty shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined for each and every such offense in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Assaulting Officers.

Sec. 2. Any person, or persons who, in this city, shall assault, beat or wound any such officer mentioned in the preceding section of this ordinance, while such officer is in the discharge of any official duty in this city, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in any sum not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Rescuing Prisoners

Sec. 3. If any person or persons shall by force set at liberty or rescue, or attempt by force in any other manner, to set at liberty or rescue from any city officer having the legal custody or charge of the same, any prisoner or prisoners, either before or after conviction, he or they shall be fined, on conviction, not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Escape or Attempting, etc.

Sec. 4. If any person lawfully confined in the calaboose or city prison of the city of Anadarko, before or after conviction for any violation of the ordinances of the city, or held in custody going to such calaboose or city prison, or working upon the street or public grounds of the city in pursuance of the ordinances of this city for the payment of any fine or costs adjudged against him, and in the custody of any officer of this city, shall break of attempt to break such calaboose or prison, or custody, and escape or attempt to escape therefrom, he shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Personating an Officer.

Sec. 5. Any person who shall in this city personate any officer of this city, falsely represent himself to be an officer of this city, or shall exercise or attempt to exercise, any of the duties, functions or powers of a city officer without being duly authorized, shall be fined in a sum not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Imitating Signals.

Sec. 6. That any person who shall, in this city, use any police whistle or any other instrument used by the policemen to give signals to each other, or shall imitate any signal given by one policeman to another or signal used by policemen for the purpose of improperly or carelessly attracting the attention of the police, shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars.

Loitering Around City Prison.

Sec. 7. That any person loitering around the city prison with intent to communicate unlawfully with any prisoner confined therein, or any person who shall attempt to communicate unlawfully with, or any person who does communicate unlawfully in any manner with any prisoner confined in said prison shall, upon conviction before the police judge, be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Conveying Instrument to Prisoner

Sec. 8. That any person who shall convey into the city prison any disguised instrument or anything proper or useful to facilitate the escape of any prisoner lawfully committed to or detained in said city prison for any criminal offense, or lawfully imprisoned or detained therein, for any violation of any city ordinance, whether such escape be effected or attempted or not shall, upon conviction before the police judge of said city, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

ARTICLE V.

Offenses Relating to Gaming Houses And Gambling.

Sec. 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, or persons, to set up, open, keep or maintain any gaming or gambling houses in the city of Anadarko, or lease or let any house or other building for the purpose of setting up, or keeping therein, gaming or gambling devices, or permit any description of gambling or playing any game of chance for money, goods, or other valuable things in any dwelling, house or store, booth, tent, shop, or other tenement, building or place used, owned or occupied by any such person, and any one disobeying the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Keeping Gambling Tables or Device

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to own, keep or possess, in this city, any shuffle board, keno table, fargo bank, wheel of fortune, roulette, equality or any kind of gaming tables or device adopted, devised and designed for the purpose of playing any game of chance, or permit any person to be or play at upon any such gaming table or gambling device, and any one found guilty of violating this section shall pay a fine not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Wager Money on Gaming Table.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to bet, or wager money or property upon any gaming table, game of cards, bank or device prohibited in the preceding section, or induce, encourage or entice any person to be or play at any game for money or other valuable things, and any one violating the provisions of this section shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

ARTICLE VI.

Miscellaneous Offenses—Drawing Dangerous Weapons.

Sec. 1. That any person, not an officer of the law in the execution of his duty, who shall in the city of Anadarko draw a pistol, revolver, gun, knife, or any other deadly weapon upon any other person shall upon conviction, be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Vagrancy.

Sec. 2. Any person, in the city of Anadarko, who may be found loitering around a house of ill-fame, gambling house, or a place where liquors are sold, or in the streets or alleys, or around any public or private lot or building, or any person wandering about begging, or going from door to door begging, or any able-bodied man who shall neglect or refuse to provide for the support of his family, or any person over the age of eighteen years who has no occupation, business or employment, without visible means of support or who cannot give a satisfactory account of himself, shall be deemed a vagrant, and shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Loitering.

Sec. 3. Any person who shall loiter around a railroad depot, or depot grounds, in the city of Anadarko, unless such person is, for the time being, engaged in some business demanding his presence at such depot or grounds, or who shall sleep or lurk in any railroad car without leave of the person in charge of such car, or who shall habitually lurk in any public places without any lawful means of support, and without being engaged in some lawful business, or who shall sleep or lurk in any stable or out-house or in any premises not his own without leave or shall sleep or lurk in any public school house without leave of the person in charge thereof, shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

Hotel Runners.

Sec. 4. Every hotel runner shall wear a badge with the name of the hotel he represents in a conspicuous place on his person, and any person who shall act as runner for any hotel without wearing such badge shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

Prostitutes in Public Places.

Sec. 5. Any prostitute or any female having the reputation of being a prostitute who shall conduct herself in an unseemly, lewd, boisterous or indecent manner upon or near any street, public place or private residence within the city limits shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

Sec. 6. Any lewd woman or prostitute, or inmate of any bawdy house, or house of ill-fame, or any woman generally reported to be a prostitute, or inmate of a house of ill-fame, who shall appear in public upon the streets or any other public place of Anadarko, for the purpose of attracting attention or of soliciting the company of any male person shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

Male Persons With Prostitutes.

Sec. 7. Any person over the age of twelve years who shall be seen riding or walking within the corporate limits of the city of Anadarko with any woman known or generally reported to be a prostitute or lewd woman shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars; provided, this section shall not apply to public carriers in the discharge of their regular duties.

Procuring.

Sec. 8. Any person who shall procure a female of previous chaste repute, or entice or solicit such woman to enter a house of prostitution to become an inmate thereof, or assignation or other house of ill-fame for the purpose of prostitution shall on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the city jail for a period not exceeding three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Runner for House of Ill-Fame.

Sec. 9. Any person who shall be a runner or solicitor for patronage to any house of ill-fame, or bawdy house, or who shall be found lurking around such house for such purposes, shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Confidence Games.

Sec. 10. Any person who shall be found in this city playing or attempting to play, any confidence game or games, three-card monte, or other confidence games, or be a solicitor or capper to procure persons to play at such games, or who shall obtain or attempt to obtain any money or property from another by any false pretenses or confidence game of any character or kind shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars.

Crowd Failing to Disperse.

Sec. 11. Any person who shall obstruct any street, sidewalk, alley or public grounds in said city by meeting thereon, or by congregating in crowds thereon, and who shall fail or refuse to disperse, or cease to obstruct such street, alley, avenue or other public place on the request of the city marshal or any policeman of said city shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Stacking of Hay.

Sec. 12. Any person who shall stack any hay on any street, alley or avenue, or upon his or her own property, or upon property occupied by him or her, and leave the same exposed without proper covering of boards or other material sufficient to protect the same from fire, or shall stack or pile more than twenty-five tons in one place under cover as aforesaid shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Disorderly Houses.

Sec. 13. That any person who shall keep, maintain or have charge of any house or public place of resort in said city, where liquors are sold, or where people resort to for amusement, who shall conduct the same, or permit the same to be conducted in a boisterous, noisy or indecent manner to the annoyance of any of the citizens of said city, or who shall permit women of lewd character to regularly resort thereto for the purpose of dancing or mingling with male persons shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five and not exceeding one hundred dollars for each such offense.

Slot Machines.

Sec. 14. That it shall be unlawful for any person to set up or maintain any gambling device, ordinarily known or styled as a slot machine at any public place in said city and permit the same to be played for money and any one disobeying the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined in any sum not less than three or more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 15. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law.

Approved November 5, 1901.

Passed November 5, 1901.

W. H. DICKENS, Mayor.

Attest:

W. W. PRICE, Clerk.

(Published November 8, 1901.)

Reid & Reid

Millinery Parlors

Our line of Pattern Hats, Veilings and Powders the most complete tasty and strictly up-to-date in town. Located on

A Street between 5th and 6th
30-3m

Herbert D. Crosby,

Attorney and Counselor-at-Law

Anadarko, Oklahoma.

County Attorney
Fire Insurance